A single 4-hour class designed to teach and equip your cleaning staff to improve their working standards and fully comprehend that they are responsible for the cleaning and care of your office space, as well as being a representative of the company when visitors arrive. First impressions matter.

We would send a trainer directly to your office to conduct the training on your premises. Upon arrival at your offices, an assessment of the work area and workload is done, to confirm you have enough staff to perform all the required duties, as well as seeing what areas we need to focus on with the training.
